PROFILE

I am a self-taught developer with a strong interest in back-end development. I have experience using Node.js, Express.js, and MySQL to build server-side applications and RESTful APIs. I'm also familiar with front-end tools which helps me understand full project flow. I work comfortably in a Linux environment. I enjoy learning about new technologies, and building secure, fast, and scalable web applications. I'm now focused on growing as a developer.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Freelance Front-End Developer 2023-PRESENT
Remote- Self-initiated projects
